

Prescription drug coverage with MedicareBlueSM Rx (PDP)

Original Medicare will help you cover hospital and medical expenses, but when it comes to prescription drugs, you may need additional coverage. MedicareBlue Rx provides two coverage and cost-sharing options so you can choose a plan that fits your needs – and your budget.

- Get coverage for more than 3,000 prescription drugs
- Fill your prescription at more than 67,000 pharmacies across the U.S.
- More than 36,000 pharmacies in our network offer preferred cost sharing, meaning you could save with pharmacies like CVS, Target, Walmart, Hy-Vee, Costco and more

¹Your “total drug costs” include the total amount you have paid for covered drugs plus what the plan has paid for the calendar year. This does not include the plan premium you pay.

²Your “out-of-pocket costs” include the amount you have paid for covered drugs for the calendar year. This does not include the amount the plan has paid or the plan premium.

Frequently asked questions

Am I eligible for MedicareBlue Rx?

You can enroll regardless of your income or health if you meet the following basic eligibility requirements:

- Currently have Medicare Part A, Part B, or both
- Live in the service area (Iowa, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota or Wyoming)
- You are a U.S. citizen or lawfully present in the U.S.

When can I join?

Most people join a prescription drug plan during their initial enrollment period (IEP) or during the annual enrollment period (AEP), but other options are available. Visit YourMedicareSolutions.com to learn about enrollment periods.

How do I know if MedicareBlue Rx is right for me?

Prescription drug costs are not covered by Original Medicare, so it's important to consider all your coverage needs. MedicareBlue Rx may be a good fit if you:

- Are eligible for MedicareBlue Rx
- Currently take prescription drugs, or think you may need to in the future
- Think you may need to fill prescriptions while traveling in the U.S.

Enrolling in a prescription drug plan can also help you avoid the Part D late enrollment penalty.
